RESUBMISSION REPUBLICANS.

Meeting of the State Convention at Wichita Affiliation With the Democrats-The Plat-WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 10. - There were 350 delegates present when the Resubmission Republican convention assembled in Garfield Hall, which was called to order by A. L. Allen, of Topeka, president of the State clubs.

On calling the convention to order President Allen delivered a short address and introduced Hon. D. A. Banta, of Great Bend, as temporary chairman.

Hon. D. A. Banta, of Great Bend, was chosen temporary chairman, and Beacher Stern, of Topeka, temporary secretary. Committees were appointed and the temporary organization made permanent.

No nominations were made, but it was dec.ded to appoint a conference committee of five to wait upon the Democratic convention and see if Hon. D. A. Banta, of Great Bend, would suit it for Lieutenant-Governor. If this place was given the convention pledged itself by vote to indorse the full Democratic ticket. The following platform was adopted: The Resubmission Republicans in their declaration of principles renew their pledges to their National party, declare for reciprocity as set forth by Secretary Blaine, ask for free silver coinage and an increase in the volume of money to meet the needs of trade, favor such a modification of the present tariff laws as will protect and encourage agriculture of the West as well as manufactures of the East, call forth nonsectional interests recognizing the entire sisterhood of states, ask for an equitable bankrupt law, favor a deep harbor on the Gulf of Mexico and call for liberal appropriations for it, favor irrigation in the West and call for liberal and equitable pension laws. The platform continues: We arraign the party managers in this State as disloyal to the principles and unfaithful to the interests of the Republican party. We claim that they have put the party in Kansas out of harmony with the National Republican party, and thereby absolved us from all obligations to longer acknowledge their leadership. Lured by the seductive wiles of impract cal visionaries, they have committed the party to extravagances and foilies which, unless promptly checked, will bankrupt and depopulate the ttate. These things impel us, as the only method which promises success, to sink party preferences in state politics for the time and unite with such of our fellow citizens of the State and share our convictions, without regard to party, for the purpose of correcting the follies into which we have been betrayed, and thus preserve the good name and future prosperity of the state.

We believe that too much legislation is a curse, and are in favor of a complete revision of the Kansas statutes, with a view to the correction of those laws which are imperfect and the elimina ion of all such as are superfluous and unnecessary or generally not enforced.

We are in favor of a ridly honest and economical administration of all the business of the State to the end that taxation may be reduced and the burdens of the peo-

We are in favor of the abolishment by law of the offices of election commissioners, sioners, county auditors and jury commis-sioners and other use ess and expensive offices and reduction of the fees of such officers as now receive many times more than their services are worth to the people

We are opposed to prohibition. Ten years' trial has demonstrated its total ineffi. iency as a temperance measure; that it is a revival of the obsolete form of pat- rnal government and entirely opposed to the gen us and spirit of the age; that it is at enmity with the fundamental principals of our civ-ilization and desiroys that right of the citizen to determine for himselt by what method he will preserve his own happiness without interference with the rights of others, which principle is the basis of our liberties and the hope of our institutions; that it is un-American, unrepublican and undemocratic and not in harmony with the purposes and spirit of our institutions and laws; that the existence of the prohibitory law is a perpetual menuce to the material interests of the State; that it burdens us with taxation; that it deprives us of all control of the liquor traffic and all revenue therefrom; that it drives away popula-tion; that it prevents immigration; that it makes the building of large cities within the State impossible; that it encourages perjury; that it makes more hypocrites than all other agencies combined; that it does not lessen crime or pauperism; that it does not empty jails, penitentiaries, lunatic asylums or alms houses; and believing that any public measure in the hands of an enlightened people is absolutery safe, we demand that the question of the repeal of the prohibitory amendment to the constitution be submitted to the people at as early a date

We are in favor of strict laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic, and as a substitute for prohibition we favor high license and local option with such restrictions and regulations as shall pactect our homes and guard our youth from the dangers now surrounding them resulting from the unrestrained liquor traffic that now exists under prohibition; and we recommend that the minimum license be fixed at 160; and the maximbm at $1,200, the money collected to be applied so as to lessen the the burdens of taxation in the counties and municipalities, and in the construction of roads, building of bridges and in the support of public schools.

The platform declares in favor of equitable redemption laws; against the empolyment of convict labor in competition with free labor; for the enactment of such reasonable and just laws as will secure to labor its just reward in competition with capital and the enactment of a law designating the first Monday of September of each year as a legal holiday; CATTLE—Shipping steers... HOGE—Packing and shipping SHEEP—Fair to choice..... FLOUR—Winter wheat..... against the law relative to the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, and that the penalty now imposed and the interest now allowed on tax sale certificates, which is 24 per cent, be reduced at least one-half.

The platform closes as follows: Reserving his convictions upon other questions, every true citizen, without questions, every true citizen, without regard to party, can legally and consistently join with us in the accomplishment of these objects. Relying upon the justness of our canes we lavite the co-operation of liberal-minded measthroughout the State, and with it the success of the cause of the people will be assured and a new era of prosperity will dawn BURMESE WATER FEAST.

Frollesome Behavior of Men and Women on New Years' Day.

The Siamese are so near the equator that they have about the same hot weather the year round. Every man, woman and child in Bangkok takes a plunge into the river at least three times a day. Of the 700,000 people in the city at least 500,000 live in floating houses, and inasmuch as the summer costume of the lower classes consists of a garment about the size of a Turkish towel, it is not much trouble for them to go in bathing. They bathe on the steps of their houses and stand up to the waist in the water, grunting delighttedly as they pour bucketful after bucketful over themselves and their neighbors. The Burmese man and woman take a bath every night after dinner. This bath is merely pouring water over the person. Soap is never used and particular care is taken not to wet the hair.

At New Year's, when the weather is as hot as our summer, these people have what they call a water feast, and at this time the whole nation throws water upon one another. All the pretty girls go out with buckets, and the boys have squirt guns, and for three days there is nothing but water-splashing. The foreigners of Rangoon also engaged in this, and the Chinese celebrate the feast with the rest. One Chinaman rigged up a hydrant with a two-inch pipe during the last feast, and as his house was on the main street, he had the bulge, as it were, on every one else. He engaged a coolie to work the machine all day, and, as he was selling water-works, he had a good advertisement in addition to his fun.

A swell Englishman arrived in Burman last year during this feast. He went to call on one of the leading men of Rangoon in tall silk hat and black clothes and was met at the door by a girl with a bucket of water. The girl asked him in Burmese whether he was observing the water feast, and he, supposing that she wanted to know whether he had come to see her father, nodded his head, and with that nod this whole bucket of water went over his silk hat and down the back of his collar, completely drenching him.

During the same time another party of Englishmen were told that some girls were coming to throw water on them. They had the servants bring out the bath-tub and put it on the verandah, and when the girls came they got possession of the bath-tub and splashed the Englishmen until one of them, rushing in, seized one of the maidens and, lifting her up, dropped her into the tub. This was considered very impolite, and the young man who did it suffered by receiving no further attention from the Burmese beauties.-Philadelphia Press.

MAKE TIFFIN, - OHTO,

-American naval officers who have adopted the cholera belt in the tropics find it so beneficial that they often retain it in all latitudes. It is simply a broad band of flannel worn night and day the year around tight about the waist, so as to protect the stomach from sudden changes of temperature. It is said to be an excellent preventive of stomachic disorders.

Chills and Fever.

When a person gets the chills and fever they don't want to take medicine that does them no good. They don't feel a bit like doing such a foolish thing. They want a medicine that is safe and one that is sure. Well, there is one remedy that, while being perfectly harmless, has never failed and never will fail to completely cure chills and fever, and that remedy is Smith's Tonic Syrup. It is made by Dr. John Bull, of Syrup. It is made by Dr. John Bull, of Louisville, Ky., and is as sure to cure chills and fever as daylight is to follow darkness. In the malarial season it is an excellent remedy to have handy. A single dose will check a cold and allay feverish symptoms. Every intelligent family should keep it in their household and use it as a preventive of colds and malaria, as well as a quick
